

Education for Liberation

Who:

High school students passionate about working with children, the community, social issues, and becoming a leader.

What:

Work for Asian Americans United (AAU) this summer in our Education for Liberation program. The AAU Summer Program is a seven-week leadership program for high school youth and a four-week camp program for children (grades 2-9). A week and a half of intensive training prepares youth staff to run the program for children. Program will include: teambuilding, leadership development, discussion of identity and history, and more!

How:

To apply- Spaces are limited! Please complete an application. (can be found at aaunited.org, under "Youth Programs")

Questions- Please contact Teresa Engst at teresa.engst@aaunited.org or 215-925-1538

Where:

Location-
1023 Callowhill Street
Philadelphia, PA
19123

When:

Program will run from June 27-
August 7, 2018.

Summer Camp:
Monday-Thursday
8:30am-4:30pm

Training Days:
Fridays
8:30am-4:30pm

High school staff will be scheduled:
Mon/Tues/Fri
or
Wed/Thurs/Fri

Why:

- Act as positive role models and mentors to children!
- Improve your leadership skills!
- Learn to prepare, adapt, and deliver your own curriculums.
- Workshops and speakers on topics such as social justice, culture, community, etc.